CAYCE, SC – The Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center has been named the U.S. Tennis Association's 2013 Featured Facility of the Year winner, the highest accolade the body awards.

The facility was also named one of 19 winners of the USTA's 32nd annual Outstanding Facility Awards Program, which recognizes excellence in construction and/or renovations of a tennis facility.

The award is given to a tennis facility that exemplifies the highest level of excellence in facility design, construction, amenities and programming. Facilities in the running for the award are judged on a range of criteria, including overall layout; player, spectator and press accommodations; aesthetics; and the facilities' participation in USTA programs.

"The Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center is a one-of-a-kind facility. We are so proud to have a wonderful place for recreation right here in Cayce," stated Elise Partin, Mayor for the City of Cayce.

The Cayce facility has 23 full-size courts and seven permanent 36-foot courts and hosted the 2012 and 2013 USTA Jr. Team Tennis National Championships.

"Great tennis facilities like the Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center help us to grow the game at the grassroots level, and we are proud to recognize them for their ongoing impact on the sport of tennis," stated Kurt Kamperman, Chief Executive for Community Tennis at the USTA. "Cayce has embraced many of our tennis initiatives, especially 10 and Under Tennis, introducing thousands of new players to the sport each year."
