CAYCE, SC – The City of Cayce is proud to participate and sponsor the 4th Annual Tartan Day South running today, Thursday April 3, through Sunday, April 6.

The annual Celtic history festival is a unique experience that gives attendees a chance to sample music, food, games and more from Celtic cultures. Proceeds from the festival will go to support The River Alliance, which promotes economic development, tourism and the history of the Midlands' waterways.

"Tartan Day South has provided a rich cultural experience for the citizens of Cayce and beyond, and we're proud to once again be a part of this celebration," said Cayce Mayor Elise Partin, who will deliver a welcome speech at noon on Saturday, April 5. "This event is a great family-friendly weekend with something new and exciting for everyone to enjoy."

In addition to hosting the festival, Cayce representatives will be participating in several ways throughout the event. Cayce Police officers will present the colors at the Opening Ceremony as well as participate in the Palmetto Pipes and Drums band. Cayce officers will also provide security, traffic control and assist with setting up the event. It is an annual tradition for the Cayce Police officers to wear kilts bearing the Cayce Public Safety tartan to honor the Celtic heritage.

For a full schedule of events and to purchase tickets, visit the event's website at <http://www.tartandaysouth.com/>.
