CAYCE, SC – Cayce City Councilman Tim James, announced that he was taking a new position as Vice President/Director of Public Safety with the Ocean Reef Community Association in Florida. Councilman James made the announcement at the April 22nd City Council Meeting.

As a lifelong resident of Cayce, Councilman James has served as the City Councilman from District 4 for five years. Prior to that he served as the Police Chief for the City. He is currently the Executive Director of the Lexington Medical Center Foundation. In addition to Councilman James years of service as a member of Cayce City Council and as the Cayce Police Chief, he has worked to honor veterans and public safety officials around the Midlands.

Councilman James also worked closely with other leaders and staff of the City of Cayce and Lexington Medical Center to bring the newest branch of the hospital to the City of Cayce at LMC Otarre Pointe.

A special election will be held to fill the District 4 position once Councilman James determines what date he will vacate the seat, based upon his transition plan he is developing with his new employer.

“A lot of prayer and thought has gone into this decision. I have discussed this at length with my family, friends and my fellow members of Council. While I am very excited about this wonderful new opportunity, Cayce is and always will be home to me. I feel strongly that while I will still have a residence in Cayce, the residents of District 4 deserve full time representation,” stated Councilman James.

Mayor Elise Partin stated, “I cannot put into words how much Tim James means to our Cayce family. He has served our community in so many ways. He will be missed; but we are excited that he is a leader in his profession and that this wonderful opportunity has come his way!”
